

Topic (February 3 rd to August 3 rd 2000)	Topic (February 3 rd to August 3 rd 2000)	Headline
Shoreham's bridges:- aerial photos of Shoreham & River Adur	By1	Bridging Year In Shoreham
WW2 Shoreham women factory workers – Holloways Factory	By2	Keep The Home Fires Burning
Shoreham's Steam Brewery & Other High Street Businesses	By3	Hey Day Of The Steam Brewery
Storms wreck Bungalow Town on Shoreham Beach	By4	Days When Natures Wrath Wrecked Bungalow Town
Big Fire in Timber Yard – Whites, Pullins & Beves	By5	Fire Threatens To Destroy Whites
The railway through Shoreham, before and now photos of the Station	By6	Back To The Halcyon Days Of Steam
Shoreham Characters:- Quack Doctor, J B Sydenham and his Potions & Lotions	By7	Puffing Just Like Dad In The 1900's
Edward George Page:- a Shoreham Character and Fisherman Who Broke The Mould	By8	A Fisherman Who Broke The Mould
Origins & Early History of Gordon Road, Shoreham by Sea	By9	Shoreham's Link With Khartoum
Wartime Exploits of a Shoreham Special policeman	By!0	Tom – Such A Special "Special"
Shoreham Beaches film making past	By11	When Famous Film Stars Flocked To Shoreham
Harry Stow of Stow's Boatyard Part 1 of 4	By12	Boat Builder Harry Was Held In Awe
Alan Upton's fathers early life in Shoreham	By13	Days When Young Reggie Laboured For 25p / Week
Alan Upton's father's childhood in Shoreham	By14	Reggie's Limelight Lament
The Ferrymen of the River Adur	By15	Ferry Facts Float In From The Past
The Life & Times of Major G F Sexton Part 1 of 3	By16	Major, His Ladies And Many A Free Drink

The Life & Times of Major G F Sexton Part 2 of 3	By17	My Dad Lost The Majors £1 Note
The Life & Times of Major G F Sexton Part 3 of 3	By18	Focus On A Major Figure In The Last Age Of Innocence - Rare Man Of Great Character
The vital role played by barges along the River Adur	By19	Barges Were A Regular Sight On The River
The mysterious haunting in Happy Valley & Slonk Hill Shoreham	By20	These Goulish Things
Harry Stow of Stow's Boatyard Part 2 of 4	By21	Early Morning Bell Was Rung Grudgingly
Harry Stow of Stow's Boatyard Part 3 of 4	By22	Failing To See The Wood For The Rays
Past Bonfire Nights in Shoreham	By23	Doodle Bug That Outdid Old Guy Fawkes
Violence in football matches between Shoreham and Southwick	By24	Football Hooliganism? Been Around For Years
The benefits of horse dung on Shoreham's Streets	By25	Dung Became A Simple Pleasure
Life in Shoreham leading up to the 2 nd World War	By26	War Clouds Beckon As Dark Days Begin
Topic (August 10th 2000 to February 15th 2001)	Article Number	Headline
Wartime life in Shoreham	By27	Phoney War Ends Bombs Drop & Local Lives Are Lost
Shoreham During The War	By28	Courage In The Air & On The Beach
Wartime Air Raids around Shoreham	By29	Children like Vultures At Plane Crash
Wartime trials and tribulations of Shoreham people	By30	Saucy Song Filled Shelter
Events in Shoreham during the War	By31	Even The Spirit Of The Blitz Fails To Excuse Risqué Lyric
Alan Upton recalls his first job as a carpenter during the war	By32	Alan's Wartime Labour of Love

Alan Upton continues his reminisces of wartime work as a carpenter	By33	Night The Air Turned Blue
Aspects of wartime life in Shoreham	By34	Explosive Find Fails To Amuse
Impact of war on Shoreham and its residents	By35	Air Raid Sounded 1060 Times
Festivities in Shoreham on VE Day	By36	Parties Begin As War In Europe Ends
An irate bull – school life Middle Road & The downs School at Buckingham House.	By37	The Day Our History Mans Dad Turned Toreador
Can you solve Shoreham's Lifeboat picture poser – workers outing & identity of Lifeboat Crew	By38	Worker Play Time
Alan Upton's Exhibition at Shoreham Library and the Solution to the Lifeboat query	By39	Nostalgia Fans Gather
Always front line of defence – wartime article about Shoreham	By40	Spirited Sussex
Rustington	By41	It Was All Change In The 20's
Local people during 1 st World War and John Purvis' poem recalling his memories of Steyning & Chanctonbury	By42	Soldier Waxes Poetic & Artistic Amid The Ugliness Of Warfare
Recollections of past Christmases in Shoreham	By43	Mummers The Word For Boxing Day Distraction
Memories of a Milk Bar kid - life around Shoreham Battern's Dairy & The Vinery	By44	The Whey We Were
Alan Upton's family memories of Shoreham	By45	Granddad Had Some Crucial Business With The Landlord Of The Surry Arms
Recollections of Shoreham Church St Mary de Haura Part 1	By46	Get Me To The Church On Time
Recollections of Shoreham Church St Mary de Haura Part 2	By47	Cross In Loving Memory Of My Fred
Hedgecock, a Shoreham shoemaker	By48	George Got His Foot In The Door Of The Food Trade

How Shoreham celebrated past events	By49	Town Used To Push The Float Out
Shoreham's fascinating animals	By50	Quackers- Duck That Thought It Was A Dog
Topic (February 22nd 2001 to 27th December 2001)	Article Number	Headline
The early days of Shoreham Airport	By51	Those Magnificent Men In There Flying Machines
Memories of St Mary de Haura's Church Hall	By52	Day My Cain Killed Them Dead
Harry Stow of Stow's Boatyard Part 4 of 4	By53	Halcyon Days Of Shipyard
Shoreham's past Regattas	By54	Champions Of The River
How Kingston by Sea became a part of Shoreham	By55	When Shoreham Won The Battle Of Kingston On Sea
Early days of aviation around Shoreham	By56	Perilous Air Race Comes To Town
Alan Upton writes about his family's history regarding Shipping from the 1800's onwards	By57	Seafaring Tales Of A Real Lion heart
Article about Mr Stallabrass a Shoreham shop owner who sold antiques and jewellery, Tom Avis the Butcher and Jim Dick the Chimney Sweep	By58	Terrific Trio Of Traders Gave Food For Thought
Development of Southwick & Shoreham over the last 60 years	By59	It's Our Town But Not As We know It
Early Shoreham Carnivals organised by the Winton Family	By60	Water A Great Day Out
How Buckingham Park and Slonk Hill were used by the army for past wars	By61	Downland Invasion As Soldiers Move In
Shoreham Airports Archive	By62	Feature Article About Shoreham Airports Archive
The Salvation Army and how they were treated by Shoreham folk	By63	Riotous Times As Sally Army Proved A Butt Of A Sick Joke

Living in Shoreham during the 1920's	By64	Oh We Do Like To Be Beside The Seaside
Property in Shoreham - Buckingham House and others	By65	Park Life Memories Abound
When Circuses visited Shoreham	By66	Never A Dull Day When The Circus Came To Town
Changes that occurred in Britain during the life of Alan Upton's father	By67	From Horse & Carts To Men On The Moon
Living around the Surry Street area of Shoreham	By68	Not The Poshest Part of Town But A Treasure House Of Memories
Memories of Shoreham, Shops Buildings & People	By69	More Steps Back Into Yester Year
Tales of East Shoreham	By70	The Old School Ties Recalled
Industry in Shoreham	By71	The Way We Used To Work
Shoreham's Timber Mills and Timber Yards	By72	Days Of Timber And Bad Backs
Early days of Shoreham's Lifeboats	By73	Helping Save Lives On The Ocean Waves
Continuing story of Shorehams Lifeboats and shipwrecks	By74	For Those In Peril On The Sea
Spooky tales of ghosts and ghouls of Shoreham	By75	Haunting Tales Of Ghostly Goings On
Topic (January 10th 2002 to March 27th 2003)	Article Number	Headline
Shoreham, the sinking of the ship "Miown" and those who went to the rescue in the boat "Florence"	By76	Three Southwick Heroes Saved Skipper Who Stayed With His Ship
Continuing story about Shorehams Lifeboat	By77	Big Jim –Lifeboat, Pugilist & Regatta Star
Great Storm of November 1891 and Worthing's Lifeboat	By78 & 79	The Perfect Storm
Worthing and one of its residents Mrs Elizabeth Crawford	By80 & 81	The Four Sociable Ladies Of Ambrose Place

The folk who lived on the river bank in Shoreham and River Bank FC contenders for the worlds worse football team trophy	By82 & 83	Tales Of The River Bank
Shoreham Harbour's two Power Stations	By84	All Power To The People
Past Cricket matches played on Southwick Green	By85	Cricket Ban Is Hit For 6
Southwick's famous Concert Singer Dame Clara Butt,	By86	A Songstress Streets Ahead Of The Rest
Recalling the Heasman family from Southwick	By87	Why William Arthur Became Ted
Past residents and residences in Grange Road in Southwick	By88	Home Home At The Grange
Pioneering cyclists and "early days" car drivers in Worthing	By89	Bygone Extra – When Mr Blake Met With MrTyre
Exhibition of finds from Southwick's Roman Villa	By90 & 91	Southwick Manor Cottage Open Day
Recollections of some the family businesses in Southwick's past	By92	A Trip Down Memory Lane To Meet Some Of Yester – Years Traders
Southwick's Merchant and Ship owner R H Penney	By93	Our History Man Gives Us A Penney For Our Thoughts
Paul Schwedder, Yeoman and Worthing landowner	By94 & 95	Meet The Towns 1st ECO Warrior
Shoreham, Worthing & Littlehampton's coast line were targets for German WW2 troop landings	By96 & 97	When That Sea Lion Threatened Our Coastline
Continuing story of Southwick's Merchant and ship owner R H Penney	By98	Boat Race Winner George Kept Penney Fame Afloat
The lives of two Southwick men Dave Green & Ron Voice	By99	How Cottages Finally Turned Into A Dairy
Pioneering early day flights around and above Worthing	By100	Those Intrepid Young Men On Their Flying Machines
The history of The Grange Press	By101&102	Gentlemen Of The Press On 2s-6p A Week

WW1 U Boat attack off the Sussex coast	By103	Das Boot Killer Sub UB57 Strikes Off Sussex Coast
Continuing story of Grange Press	By104	MD Was Piped Aboard With Compositors Standing To Attention
Local bathing beauties	By105	Not Just A Pretty Face
Muggeridge Ships Chandeliers	By106	Proud Tradition Of Ships Chandlery Goes Back 150 Years
Topic (April 17th to December 30th 2003)	Article Number	Headline
Southwick's Dairies	By107	Our History Man Ted Recalls The Dairies That Did It Their Whey
How a Southwick cricketer bowled out W G Grace	By108	Hand That Bowled Grace
Filming and Photography in Worthing's Victorian times	By109	Launching Into The Wonderful World Of Pictures
Roman Finds around Worthing	By110	What Did The Romans Ever Do For Us Then
Travel to and from Worthing in the 1800's	By111&112	On The Road Into Town
The story of Southwick's Cinema	By113	Real Life Imitated Art And Fire Hit Cinema was no more
Valiant Bomber crash over Southwick	By114	I Thought It Was the End Of The World
Southwick's Blacksmiths	By115	Good Old Days When The Village Smithy Played For A Local Cricket Club
Worthing's celebration of Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee	By116&117	Worthing Sings its Own Praises For The Queens Diamond Day
Cissbury Ring	By118	The Days When Cissbury Was Lord Of The Rings
Building Southwick Square	By119	Dawn Of New Shopping Era

Continuing the history of cricket on Southwick Green	By120	Cricket Lovely Cricket at the green Where I Saw It
Poverty in Worthing's past	By121	Monies Too Tight To Mention
Famous characters Jack Capstick & Cecil Pashley	By122	The Times They Are A Changing (or are they)
Shoreham Harbour Tugs	By123	Let's Hear It For The harbour Workhorses
Continuing story of Shorehams Tugs	By124	Another Look At The Harbours Pulling Power Down Through The Years
A Worthing Mayor who helped a Lady find a husband	By125&126	Mail Order Male By Mayor Order In 1936
Kingston Lane	By127	Where Lords Of The Manor Once Held Sway
Grade 1 listed buildings in Worthing	By128	Making The Grade
Worthing during the depression	By129&130	Depressed? Try Living Here In The 1930's
Connections between the Spanish Armada and maps of that time with Hitler's Invasion Plan "Operation Sea Lion	By131	Armada Put The Area On The Map
White Christmases in Worthing's past	By132	So Are You Dreaming Of A White Christmas with Every Christmas Card You Write
Edwardian life in Worthing	By133	How We Used To Live
Topic (January 8th 2004 to May 6th 2004)	Article Number	Headline
Civil Unrest in Worthing -The Salvation Army is attacked by The Skeleton Army	By134&135	A Shot Rang Out And A Cab Driver Fell Blood Spurting From His Neck
Civil unrest continues in Worthing	By136	When a Man Used A Gun To Defend His House
The Glamour & Glitter that once surrounded Shoreham Beach	By137&138	Beauty & Birth Of Bungalow Town

Schoolboy thoughts about WW2 radar, planes & weapons	By139	The Truth Of Willy Johnson And His Death Ray Discovery
Southwick's Seaman's Mission & other landmark properties in Southwick	By140	Bygone Extra – For Those In Peril On The Sea
The changing face of Worthing's seafront	By141	Same Place But Divided By 80 Years
Cricket, Cricketers and business around Southwicks Green	By142	Bygone Extra – Everything You Have Ever Wanted To Know About The History Of A Prime Corner Site Near Southwick Green
Worthing women working during WW2	By143	We Have Had A case Where The Wife Has Volunteered And The Husband Has Come And Implored That His Wife Should Not Be Taken Away
Rationing and Black Marketeering during WW2	By144	Paltry Pickings For Poultry Farmers But Not The Black Marketeer
The coastal tramway from Hove to Shoreham, the Jumna Paddle Steamer at Littlehampton and other Edwardian developments	By145&146	Edwardian Times Of Expansion Along The South Coast
Early day flying activities along the Sussex coast – Part 1	By147&148	Intrepid Young Men In Their Flying Machines
Concludes Pioneering Airmen and their impact on West Sussex Part 2	By149&150	Something In The Air At The Seaside
Memories of Southwick families and businesses	By151	Bygone Extra – When An Old Cricketer Leaves The Crease
How a spirit of free enterprise marked a unique decade – Part 1	By152&153	1935 And All That Part 1
Concluding the story of Worthing in the 1930's – Part 2	By154&155	Taking it To The Limit
The Mystery Towers built at Shoreham harbour in 1918	By156	The Two Towers

Frddie Feast answers Bygone readers questions on the history of local towns from Littlehampton to Shoreham	By157&158	Questions Questions
A Heinkel shot down over High Salvington during WW2	By159&160	Downed In Worthing – The Day A German Bomber Fell Into Our Hands
Southwick & Shoreham Coal Companies	By161	Bygone Extra – When Coal Was King
Stories of extreme weather conditions along the South Coast	By162&63	That’s Our Weather For You
Topic (May 13th 2004 to August 26th 2004)	Article Number	Headline
Worthing during the build up to the Normandy landings	By164&165	Counting The Hours Before The Longest Day
Frank Hooper, Worthing Photographer	By166 - 168	Prints Charming From A Golden Generation
Worthing 1932 -1936	By169 - 171	5 Years That Transformed The World (and how something’s hardly changed)
More pictures of the 1930’s from Frank Hooper’s Box Brownie	By172 -174	A Brand New Semi On 12 Shillings Per Week
Shock wave from Russian nuclear bomb test is recorded in Worthing	By175&176	Shockwaves throughout Europe & In Downlands Avenue Worthing
Worthing, the motorists mecca but Shoreham resisted the appeal of motorcars	By177&178	Motoring Pioneers Who Put The Town Streets Ahead
Continuing story of Worthing’s early love of motorcars	By179&180	Driving Home The Message
Southwick traders who always delivered	By181	Bygone Extra – Grocer George Had Something To Shout About
The first enemy aircraft to be shot down over Worthing	By182&183	Readers Help To Piece Together A Wartime Puzzle

A collection of articles ranging from Littlehampton train crash, aerial photo's of Bungalow Town and the buildings around Worthing Town Hall	By184 - 186	Steamed Up Over Loco Crash
Worthing's enduring seaweed problems	By187 - 188	Kicking Up A Stink Over Seaweed For 200 Years
Transport in Worthing from 1841 onwards including the Worthing omnibus pioneer James Town	By189 - 191	Worthing Goes To Town For A Fare Deal
Swiss Gardens – Shoreham's answer to Brighton's popular pleasure parks	By192&193	That's Entertainment: The Pleasure Palace That Had It All
Shops of Underdown Road, Southwick	By194	Looking Back – Traders On Parade With Superstores
South Coast Towns defend themselves in anticipation of seaborne invasion from France	By195&196	Holding the Fort: Fear Of Invasion From Napoleons Army Put South Coast Towns On The Defensive
Littlehampton as a developing seaside resort	By197&198	Town that Proved a real tonic for holidaymakers
More on Seaside resorts along the Sussex Coast	By199&200	Dear Ava Gardner: If You Want A Quiet Holiday Come To Worthing
Worthing Photographers and the 1955 "That's Not The Way to Do It"	By201&202	Presenting Worthing's Fledgling Camera Club
Topic (August 26th 2004 to 30th December 2004)	Article Number	Headline
Transport running along the Coast	By203	Bygone Extra – I Dedicate This Article To The Petite Girl With The Big Motorbike
How a mystery that has puzzled local historians for years was solved.	By204&205	Bygones Freddie Feest
How criminals cashed in on the Counties Byways Shoreham's theatrical dream turns into a tragedy	By206&207	Road Rage: Stage Fright:

Irish Freedom Fighter Charles Stewart Parnell and The Scarlet Woman	By208&209	Steining Sojourn: How A Controversial Victorian Couple Found Peace & Quiet Briefly In The Sussex Countryside
A wartime mission to save the country from a cash crisis	By210&211	War Pair Gave Sterling Service
Sussex Windmills Part 1	By212&213	Grist To The Mill
Southwick's Community Part 1	By214	Bygone Extra – Open Space Was From The Manor Born
Sussex Windmills Part 2	By215&216	Can You Solve the Mill Mystery
RAF airmen who lost their lives saving Worthing	By217&218	Cinemas Explosive Atmosphere
One of the county's most colourful characters – Ken Chaplin	By219&220	Free Spirited, Fascinating, Free Wheeling Life
Southwick's Community Part 2	By221	Bygone Extra – The Green Played A Vital Role In The 1 st World War
Edwardian times along the Sussex coast – Part 1	By222&223	Dawn Of A New Era
Edwardian Times – Part 2	By224&225	So What Did The Edwardians Ever Do For Us
How the fall of France in WW2 led to Worthing's mass evacuation plans	By226&227	Towns Disappearing Act
John Oliver, Worthing miller and alleged reprobate	By228&229	Tomb With A View
Southwick's community Part 3	By230	Bygone Extra – High Days On The Green
Freddie Feest replies to letters from readers	By231&232	Sizing Up The Palace By The Sea
Insignificant memorial to The RAF airmen who lost their lives saving Worthing	By233&234	Is This The Way To Salute Our War Heroes
The scandal of Victorian Workhouses	By235&236	All Work And No Play In The House of Horror
Local industry's contribution to the country's war effort	By237&238	Behind The Lines: Worthing's Secret Army's Brave Front

The diary of a Worthing Physiotherapist, Joan Strange.	By239&240	Tomorrow Is Another Day
Freddie Feest answers some of his readers frequently asked questions	By241&242	The Coast Is Clear